Hands Together for a Greener Tomorrow

A wave of enthusiasm and environmental responsibility swept through St. Joseph's Convent School, Moga, as the institution proudly joined hands with the nation in celebrating the 9th edition of Swachhata Hi Seva (SHS) 2025 under the Swachh Bharat Mission. The 15-days campaign, held from 17th September to 2nd October 2025, served as a powerful reminder of the collective strength of community participation in creating a cleaner and greener India.

As part of this noble cause, the school organised a series of impactful activities focused on cleanliness, sustainability, and environmental awareness. Among these, "Ek Ped Maa Ke Naam" initiative stood out as a heartfelt tribute to both mothers and Mother Earth. This meaningful campaign encouraged every participant to plant a tree in honour of their mother, symbolizing love, gratitude, and the nurturing spirit that sustains life.

The event witnessed active participation from students and their mothers, who came together on 1st October 2025 to plant saplings within the school premises. Their collective efforts not only added greenery to the surroundings but also strengthened the message of environmental care and intergenerational responsibility.

Through these endeavours, St. Joseph's Convent School, Moga, reaffirmed its unwavering commitment to environmental stewardship, cleanliness, and community service, aligning its vision with the national movement towards a cleaner, greener, and more sustainable future.
